

Decca (KZSU) 90.1 fm Stanford University, Stanford, CA

Reviewed 2009-04-09

A classic, old-fashioned voice full of emotion and style. Her supple voice ranges from sexy and warm to pain-filled and sweeping. Bill Bell on piano and Jeff Chambers on bass take turns providing sophisticated, unexpectedly modern accompaniment that bridges styles and decades. She also gives the guys a couple of tracks on their own, which is cool.

1. Sweet, smoky ballad with subtle piano and lots of style.
- *2. Relaxed vocal, cool bass solo, honey-smooth.
3. Midtempo, lightly swinging piano/bass duet, the guys get to shine.
4. Downtempo ballad w/bass adding a contemporary twist.
- *5. Slow & sultry Billie Holiday blues. Hot...
- *6. Slow and gorgeous, vocals & piano.
7. Downtempo vocals & bass, w/long bass solo.
8. Down/midtempo Cole Porter chestnut, cool vox/bass duet.
9. Slow w/lush piano an old-fashioned, late night sound.
- *10. Mid/upbeat piano & bass duet w/a lightly swinging feel.
11. Slow blues w/bass playing the heartstrings & vocals moaning.
12. Piano/vocals on a slow gospel hymn.